10. CORRESPONDENCE/EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION
 - Ofc. Carlson received a letter of recognition for his successful intervention of a domestic situation involving a mentally unstable individual armed with a knife.
 - A letter of appreciation from a resident was received with some goodies.

- An email was received from a bicycle club thanking the police for a safe escort on their travels through Palos Heights. The officers involved were Kevin Apostal and Matt Rafferty.
- The recovery of a stolen vehicle from Palos Heights was made in April. The processing of this vehicle by Ofc. Evans led to the identification of the offender. The subject was arrested by Detective Parnitzke with the help of Ofc. Rafferty. The booking process was swift and seamless with Sgts Yott and Nagy and Ofcs Jedinak and Droba assisting. All worked as a great team to get the offender to bond court.
- The Palos Heights Cop on Top raised $5,848.63. Job well done
